Jan. 5, No. 1. How organizational security is evolving into three distinct specialties...Security directors have potentially important spot in transnational data flow management...Lawyers' group calls for increased use of preventative detention.

Canadian bank forced to rehire teller despite her carelessness in loss...Security vulnerabilities: gasoline theft; hospital stabbing; "gift" bomb...Learn karate or judo?...Security & the press: crime & concerns; Purolator follies; diamond dreams.

Part II. Security industry performance table--1981. SECURITY LETTER index--1981.

Jan. 18, No. 2. Retail security executives pressured to demonstrate pay-offs from costly loss controls...Roundup of security ideas from NRMA's annual convention--Deterrent value of EAS; longer hours-more loss; pre-employment screening...What the AT&T antitrust settlement will mean for security.

Nonbank deposit vaults filling security void left by banks...but are they really safe?...Canadian armored car company victims of unusual number of robberies...Security guard companies promote use of unarmed personnel...Areas vary greatly on auto theft... Security industry financial news: Cable Cop. Security people: Mikolos B. Korodi, Diane Botnick, Fred Rayne.

Part II. Points for better executive protection.

Feb. 1, No. 3. Security: The fundamental quality all organizations need to survive, operate, grow...New information on bank crime provided by latest FBI bank crime statistics...Bank fraud & embezzlement violations show slight reduction...Release of Gen. Dozier is a blow against terrorism, reminder to improve DP efforts...Reading: "Crime Dictionary."

Winter weather adds to fire, safety & security risks...Where to obtain defensive driving instruction...Personal security: Locksmith held responsible for faulty installation...Follow-up: Purolator verdicts & Citibank ATM disputes...Earnings...Security industry news--Guardsmark, Fingermatrix...Security briefs.

Part II. Directory of security & security-related organizations.

Feb. 16, No. 4. Cost of crime difficult to estimate...Foreign corporations steadily entering US security hardware & systems market...Miniature recording devices making small corporate impact...dogs give bite to security program.

Reading: Two books on small business security... Continuing security education...Earnings...Security briefs.

Part II. Improving automobile security.

Mar. 1, No. 5. Declining federal investment in crime control spurs strong growth in security services ...NRA's $2 million liability for stolen gun; implications for security...Protecting against water loss after a fire or damage from burst pipes...Security of vaults may be overrated...Fraudulent barter scheme: J. Walter Thompson...Security technology: Gemprint.

Security publications: "Shrinkage Control" and "Security Law Newsletter"...Security services: exec. employment...Briefs: Crime Control; Brink's.

Part II. Credit union & portfolio fraud.

Mar. 15, No. 6. New study shows growing liability actions & awards in civil jury trials...Crime increasing in "safe" countries; racial connections noted...Protective service workers to reach 1.5 mil. by 1985, 1.7 mil. by 1995...Fire in Houston hotel reveals lack of employee training.

Hotels, hospitals need well honed techniques to expel undesirables; the Waldorf suit...Police investigating school for credit card fraud...Tax time tips on security-related matters...Security industry news: Burns for sale?...Security briefs.

Part II. Predicasts' new study on security industry trends and growth.

Apr. 1, No. 7. Myths about security during recessionary times...Security people and sensitivity to victims of crime...NY FRB charges 11 on theft of coins ...Vehicle security: An alarm is not enough...

Better-dressed shoplifters more likely to be prosecuted in Canada...Serious computer security threat discovered with time-shared systems...Security guard co. president indicted for payroll scheme...Briefs.

Part II. How the work environment can be a breeding ground for computer crime--Jack Bologna.

Apr. 15, No. 8. Admin., CIA urge greater protection of technological info...Japan as No. 1...in security too?...New products, strategies available to fight graffiti...Court orders bank to pay $500 to customer who was robbed.

Security & law enforcement administrators concerned about armor-piercing bullets...Notary assn. promotes use of Touch Mark®...Fire prevention training. News: Security Tag Systems...Burns Intl. Sec Services.

Part II. FBI crime control data--1981.

May 2, No. 9. Reduced inflation causing unexpected problems in programs...Summer crime surge ahead? Mayors think so; we don't...Annual meeting security... Japanese security...Hospital security guards minimize psychiatric patient disturbances.

Recovery of stolen art hampered by poor inventory control...Technology & crime: Remote control robbery...Passive Infrared (PIR) used in cutting false alarm rate...Reading: "Handbook of Loss Prevention & Crime Prevention"...Continuing education.

Part II. Facility application guide for interior space protection...Part III. Security Business--Borg-Warner to Purchase Burns...Purolator Armored expanding.

May 17, No. 10. Search to replace hard wire connections includes RF...More on PIR...Top security union official on trial for extortion...New penalties for pirating of copyrighted materials...Customers protecting credit lines during recession...Giving tax deductible gifts as security service awards.

Deficient security plans in missile defense system...Publications: "Business Crime" & "High Security Locking Devices"...Products--New Polaroid system; ADT's FOCUS system...Education.

Part II. CSS's annual shoplifting survey.

June 1, No. 11. Growth of staff security personnel may increase at expense of contract services. Was bankrupt Braniff victim of industrial sabotage?... Security execs. urge precautions for personnel based in Argentina...College security plans flunking.

Red color for guard uniforms suggested... Drysdale debacle raises questions at Chase Bank... Reading: "Shoplifting--What You Need to Know about the Law"...Product: Smoke masks...Briefs: phony sheik; gerbils as drug-detectors; security videotaping.

Part II. 1981 sales, earnings for security companies. Part III. Security Business--Denver stock market financing security companies...Borg-Warner merger with Burns complete. What's next?

June 15, No. 12. Understanding of security standards vital in litigation...Bill would curb govt. security, fire fighting services from private sector. Executive protection: Political risks services.

Lloyd's expands services for kidnap cover & computer crime...Quotations on security...Pointer: Check investigator's ID...Reading: "How to Protect Your Life & Property" & "Silent Witness"...Funding cuts hit programs for cargo security & federal crime insurance. Briefs: Alarmex; Cunningham trial; Nippon Telegraph & Telephone Public Corp.; AFA Protective Services.

Part II. Measures against Terrorism & Threats.

July 1, No. 13. Seamy side of private security is examined by NY investigation...Cunningham guilty on 13 counts...Advice on protecting organization from illicit practices...Trade secrets protection--assets of Mitsubishi, Hitachi personnel...NYC bank burglaries.

Must pay for use of radio music in stores...

execs. in security industry take inflation-beating salary increases...Reading: "Book Theft & Library Security Systems"...Briefs: ins. premium rises.

Part II. Annual security co. exec. compensation study. Part III. Wackenhut leads in fight against bill to limit out-contracting...ADT's new FOCUS system... federal judge vacates antitrust judgement against ADT...Briefs: Yellow Pages; Checkpoint; Fingermatrix.

July 15, No. 14. Trade secrets case: Japanese vs. IBM. The pattern...SL to publish definitive industry SOURCE BOOK...Correcting trade secrets vulnerabilities...Buckingham Palace breach of security.

Fraud of airline tickets...Courtney on basic computer threats...Cost of security services--public vs. private...What's new in elevator security... Reading: "Business Crimes--A Guide for Corporate & Defense Counsel"...National Security Pride Day...Briefs.

Part II. Carnahan Conference highlights. Part III. Industry performance table--1982, to date.

Aug. 2, No. 15. Hitachi employees fail to make IBM "spy" case court appearance...Litigating to protect valuable trade secrets...Redundant system traps NY area bank burglary gang...Recession encourages new frauds.

Gold & diamond frauds emerging...Wearing of fake jewelry...What's new in mail room security?...Reading: "Security Administration." Briefs: Litton's Data Command Systems div.; Cunningham sentenced; barking guard nabs intruder.

Part II. Cable TV's big contribution to home security. Part III. Security Business--Telco to go into the security business...Profile: Unican...New products & services--Cable TV report; ATM documentation camera; multiplexer panel; DP training program...Profits table.

Aug. 16, No. 16. Labor disturbances on the increase...Hitachi defendants reveal defense claims... More about recession fraud control...Unholy mess for Vatican bank...Ad agency closes syndication unit.

What's new in security & safety for airline passengers?...Continuing education...Services & Products: Credential verification; breath-testing. Briefs: Litton "bug"; Rollins's rogue salesman.

Part II. P.R. Strategy for emergencies--PASE. Part III. Media questions in emergencies.

Sept. 1, No. 17. Compensation up 9.4% for loss prevention mgrs, in 1982...Security robots coming... Ethical code of conduct for security groups...Kickbacks in the security industry?...What's new in college & school security?...Vulnerability of charities, churches to theft, arson.

Retail--CA stores can sue parents of young shoplifters...Reading: "Rise & Fall of Diamonds" and "Counterattack"...Education...Briefs: Preferred fire color is now lime-yellow; Former bank mgr. as robber.

Part II. 11th annual corporate mgmt. compensation report. Part III. Security Business--Pride Day... Trade associations working closer together...Profile: Network Security...Polygraph industry: MI and CA news. Services: Covert camera; optical scanner; obtaining unlisted telephone numbers & addresses. Profits table.

Sept. 15, No. 18. Communications security now vulnerable to determined, well-financed attack...Public key encryption system theoretically vulnerable...House approves money for secured phones...FBI director says organized crime, govt. corruption have high priority.

Why terrorists not likely to use nuclear weapons...NRC files Georgia Power for security lapse...Security & the Law: Rollins damages awarded...Fire fatality: Hotel not in code compliance...Where to get security AV materials...Writing letters of recommendations...Reading: "Indecent Exposure" & "Cashless Society"...Brief: Gordon Liddy's fines.

Part II. EFTS security checklist--Bequai. Part III. Basic methods for voice & data protection.

Oct. 4, No. 19. Information security to grow enormously by end of decade...Investigation of Tylenol tragedy...Merger madness means money for investigators...Scandal involves Lloyds broker, A&A...Retail security--NMRI study, 1.53% shrinkage.

Museum security: Using multiple systems...Asking the what-if questions in risk evaluation...Reading: "Who, What & Where in Communications Security" & "The Puzzle Palace"...Briefs: security wealth...games.

Part II. Tips on tracing missing persons--Zoglio. Part III. Security Business. FBI resumes fingerprint processing services...Industry fights congressional legislation...New Hi-security Pentagon ID cards planned...F&S reports on integrated systems. News: Burns personnel change; Graziano's income.

Oct. 15, No. 20. Exec. protection now more expected as a perk...Personal liability risks rising... Retail security--new tips...Computer security: New hardware and software products available.

Questions: Cash handling; telephone bridging; helping workers...Products--Auto-Kuff immobilizer... Reading: "Encyclopedia of American Crime"...Briefs: Pinkerton's; Jack-in-Box; guard compensation growth.

Part II. Annual security officer national compensation report.

Nov. 2, No. 21. Cuts make security leaner & meaner...Tylenol case illustrates organizational vulnerability...Weak British financial controls aided in the alleged De Lorean embezzlement...Retail security--link between employees and store losses.

Jewelers report losing 2.4% of sales to crime... Kidnap & Ransom insurance growing...Security store owner killed demonstrating bullet-resistant vest... SL SOURCE BOOK Offer to be mailed...Tempered glass not recommended for security purposes.

Part II. What's happening in personal ID & access control products?--F&S report. Part III. Security Business--Big battle looming for residential security market supremacy...Armored car companies find that insurance is its "life's blood"...Unican response. Security co. president--guilty to reduced charges... Technology--PriveCode® and The Fortress. Profits Table.

Nov. 15, No. 22. Fatal flaw: Why many security people won't move up in organization...New perspective on dealing with attacker...Malingerers; hospital treatment; post-traumatic stress...Another British spy.

Tylenol costs...Risk mgmt. lessons...College security trends...High-tech: Automatic fingerprint systems...Retail security: Holiday season strategy... Briefs: Crime Control; Baker Industries; loss trends.

Part II. FBI Crime Index offenses.

Dec. 1, No. 23. Liability & Casualty ins. costs will rise sharply next year...Insolvent underwriter identified...High-tech security--Soviet thefts.

Thomas's trade secrets theft claim...Security lapses at Trident yard...Gene patent filing may be challenged...some ATM's may put employees, public at risk...Trump Tower security...Metal detection system use increasing...Reading: "Insider & Employee Thefts" & "Electronic Surveillance"...Briefs: Growing military polygraph use; Brink's damages; Aminoil's policy; surprising ruling from Toronto judge.

Part II. Ergonometrics & security performance. Part III. Security Business--Alarm Cos. sue AT&T in anti-trust suit...Wells Fargo alarm services establishes a dedicated system for financial industry. Financial news: Johnson Controls; Crime Control; Borg-Warner; Master Security Services; Ultrak.

Dec. 15, No. 24. Major study sheds light on security industry...Moonlighting cops...Warning from SEC enforcement director...Colleges using access controls more...Record cash heist at Sentry Armored.

Armor not all there, says Scotti...Bank risks: Manager dishonesty--an historic problem...IBM wins permanent trade secrets case injunction...Question: Sealed safe-deposit box...Reading: "Hospital Security" & Introduction to Private Security"...Education... Briefs: American Brands and Pinkerton's.

Part II. Study shows growth in use of retail security services. Part III. Pinkerton's end of era.

Note: Past issues of 1982 are available for $5 each postpaid. Send requests to: SECURITY LETTER, 166 East 96th St., New York, NY 10028.